

Pace Law Delegation Makes Waves at IUCN World Conservation Congress

A delegation of faculty, staff, students and alumni represented Pace Law at the International Union for the Conservation of Nature's 2016 World Conservation Congress in Honolulu Hawaii in September. The delegation debated and voted on motions concerning controversial conservation and sustainable development issues in the Member's Assembly, IUCN's highest decision-making body. Faculty led several events, including a Knowledge Café on Energy Efficiency, Renewable Energy and the Conservation of Nature lead by Dean Emeritus Richard Ottinger, and a workshop on the Role of Local Government in Bottom-Up Climate Change Action held by Professors Jessica Bacher and Tiffany Zezula of the Land Use Law Center, in collaboration with Professor Josh Galperin from Yale Law School.
